

Digital technologies revolutionising the energy sector

28 March 2019

14.00 - 18.00

Foot Anstey, Bristol

Agenda

14.00 Registration, refreshments and networking

14.30 Welcome

Kerry Hayes, project manager, Regen

14.40 Drivers for revolutionising our data - facilitate competition, innovation and new business models in the energy sector

Dr Jeff Hardy, senior research fellow, Grantham Institute - climate change and the environment, Imperial College London

15.00 Case study examples of data revolutionising the sector

- Low Carbon Technologies Detection project - Gill Nowell, DSO lead, Electralink
- GridMAP energy storage optimisation solution - Fraser Durham, commercial director, Argand Solutions

Q&A

15.55 Refreshment break

16.15 Harnessing and using data, panel discussion

- Dinker Bhardwaj, head of data policy and smart energy, BEIS
- Matt Watson, innovation and low carbon networks engineer, Western Power
- Chris Pritchett, partner, Foot Anstey
- Madeleine Greenhalgh, policy and advocacy manager, Regen (previously data scientist at Cabinet Office)
- Anes Dallagi, smart energy systems manager, EDF Energy

17.00 Refreshments and networking

18.00 Close