

Electricity market reform

Implications for the offshore wind sector

Wednesday 27 March
10.00-11.30

Agenda

- 10.00 Welcome
Johnny Gowdy, director, Regen
- 10:10 Presentation: Key takeaways from the second REMA consultation
Salma Alshamari, senior policy advisor, and Rob Mangan, policy lead, Department for Energy Security and Net Zero
- Followed by audience Q&A*
- 10.30 Panel session: Implications of wholesale electricity market reform for the offshore wind sector
Chair: Johnny Gowdy, director, Regen
Simon Gill, energy consultant, The Energy Landscape
James Brabben, senior manager, regulatory affairs, RWE
Tim Pick, chair, Offshore Wind Growth Partnership
Grace Millman, offshore sector lead, Regen
- Exploration of the future wholesale market and the challenges this could pose to offshore wind developers. Discussion of proposed reforms, including those to the government's Contracts for Difference (CfD) scheme. Consideration of impacts on operational efficiency, liquidity of forward markets and trading strategies and discussion of options for developers, including diversification of revenue streams.*
- Followed by audience Q&A*
- 11:30 Close