

The UK's Review of Electricity Market Arrangements

Thursday 18 January

13.30-17.00

Agenda

- 13.30 Delegate arrival and networking
- 14.00 Welcome and introductions from the chair
Johnny Gowdy, director, Regen
- 14.15 Review of Electricity Market Arrangements: the journey so far
Robert Hewitt, deputy director of Electricity Market Reform, Department for Energy Security and Net Zero
- 14.45 Radical incrementalism: what could a progressive reform package look like within existing market trading arrangements?
Chair: Johnny Gowdy, director, Regen
Susan Stead, senior manager, electricity market developments, SSE
Simon Gill, energy consultant, The Energy Landscape
Frances Warburton, partner - economic advisory, strategy and transactions, EY
- 15.40 Break
- 16.00 Panel Session: passing the value of a renewables-based system onto consumers
Chair: Ellie Brundrett, net zero project manager, Regen
Chloe McCallum, senior policy lead, Contracts for Difference, renewables delivery, Department for Energy Security and Net Zero
Euan Graham, senior policy researcher within the energy, networks and systems team, Citizens Advice
Matthew Billson, policy and market strategy director, Piclo
- 16.40 Interactive Session: what's next for market reform - how can the next government maintain momentum in the energy transition?
Johnny Gowdy, director, Regen
- 17.00 Closing comments and networking